Dr. George R. Knight is a man on a mission. He wants people to know by experience the riches of God's grace in Christ. Knight is an accomplished speaker and teacher, but writing has been his primary mode of communication. He began with the history and philosophy of Christian education and then added the history and theology of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. He has also taken special interest in growing the church's understanding of Ellen White and how her writings should be interpreted and applied. Adventist scholars admire Knight's penchant for treating controversial issues such as the Shut Door, the 1888 General Conference, the 1901 reorganization, and Ellen White's inspiration in an open, honest, and balanced way. At times, his method has reached beyond the controversial to the shocking. One of his books bears the name Myths in Adventism; a chapter in his book on the Crucifixion is called The Bible's Most Disgusting Teaching; and he titled one of his articles Adolf Hitler and Ellen White Agree on the Purposes of Adventist Education. But Knight doesn't shock merely for effect. He does it to get people's attention despite the noise that today's culture has accustomed them. This book is a collection of writings that give a great overview of Dr. George R. Knight's many outstanding contributions to the Seventh-day Adventist church. Topics covered are the issues of a hermeneutic for understanding and applying Ellen White's writings, Christology, last-generation perfectionism, substitution and sacrifice as more than mere metaphors, and Ellen White's counsels on lifestyle as based on principle rather than rigid literalism.
