Social Security Disability Advocate's Handbook David Traver

Social Security Disability Advocate's Handbook is a sophisticated guide filled with pattern questions and supporting data that will help you (1) knowledgeably and effectively challenge vocational testimony, and (2) use the Process Unification Rulings as powerful weapons for your claimants.

David Traver's sophisticated guide also serves as a valuable source for when you need to educate the ALJ about the limits placed by Social Security Rulings. Social Security Disability Advocate's Handbook shows you how to turn the Rulings into powerful weapons for your claimants:

- Remind ALJs what the Rulings require with 93 "commands" to agency adjudicators excerpted from the Rulings.
- Rebut common but invalid reasons ALJs use to reject claimant's allegations.
- Prevent the ALJ from rejecting a medical source statement based on the ALJ's finding that the medical source was not aware of all the medical and other evidence in the file.
- And more!
