La città senza uscita (Italian Edition) Enrico Mattioli

La città senza uscita è un centro commerciale che ha soppiantato la metropoli. Leopoldo Canapone, addetto di supermercato, è il dipendente con il più alto numero di provvedimenti disciplinari. Terrorizza la clientela suggestionandola con la cattiva qualità dei prodotti, ergendosi a paladino di una lotta alla cultura massificata. Quando il caso gli regala una sterile notorietà, i superiori scoprono che le sue provocazioni fungono da veicolo promozionale. Canapone si trova inserito in un sistema da dove è impossibile fuggire perché il consenso non si può combattere. Il suo momento di celebrità, però, volgerà presto al termine e le vicende lavorative resteranno sospese. Come la vita.
