Analisi del potenziale mercato turistico indiano (Italian Edition) Silvia Fontemaggi

Crescita economica e una popolazione importante sono i tratti distintivi che caratterizzano i paesi del BRIC. Questo lavoro nasce infatti dalla necessità di definire meglio quello che a tutti gli effetti sembra rappresentare un ampio target di potenziali consumatori che sempre più anelano ad emulare lo stile di vita occidentale, in primis nel consumo - anche turistico - in quanto atteggiamento sociale.

Attraverso un'analisi demografica, economica e sociologica, si è cercato di definire meglio le particolarità di una società così complessa come quella indiana che, seppur con i suoi tempi e le sue preferenze, si inizia ad affacciare incuriosita sul mondo.

Alcuni paesi europei hanno già iniziato, con il giusto anticipo, a “farsi belli” per attrarre anche una piccola percentuale di una classe media che si sta sempre più consolidando all'interno della società indiana, la cui popolazione nel 2013 ammontava a 1,252 miliardi di anime.

E l'Italia sarà tempestivamente capace di migliorare il suo appeal e lavorare sui giusti canali al fine di riuscire a catalizzare e sfruttare un eventuale flusso turistico indiano?
