Die...Be...Life... (Italian Edition) Massimiliano Colossi

La Punto nera scivolava sull'asfalto della tangenziale a centosettanta chilometri orari, una teoria di fari illuminava il tunnel in un fascinoso gioco di luci. L'uomo teneva una mano sul volante, l'altra sospesa sul bordo del finestrino aperto, dove raffiche d'aria scompigliavano i neri capelli.

Le labbra si muovevano appena simulando in playback il motivo di una canzone sputata a volume esagerato dagli altoparlanti.

Dalla corsia opposta le auto tornavano verso l'entroterra dopo un fine settimana di spiaggia.

La stagione balneare era finita, ma lui spingeva l'auto verso quella direzione.

Non fu un attacco di sonno e nemmeno una distrazione quella che lo fece uscire fuori strada mandandolo a schiantarsi contro il guardrail.

Fu semplicemente la strana volontà del destino.

Forse un errore di fabbricazione, oppure un detrito sull'asfalto, la gomma destra posteriore esplose come un colpo di proiettile e l'auto piroettò due volte prima dello schianto.
