Scandinavian Mythology First Hardcover Edition H.R.Ellis Davidson

The author brings vividly to life the world of mighty warriors, ruthless gods, giants, dwarfs, elves and strange beasts. She shows how Christianity gradually spread and overcame the old religion. But for many years stories and carvings showed the two religions strangely intermingled. Hilda Davidson has made a special study of the archaeology and literature of the Norse people and has written several authoritative works on various aspects of their culture. This is the first fully illustrated popular treatment of Scandinavian mythology for many years. Its splendid illustrations are drawn from many countries and include some archeological finds not previously published.
