Has your group's study material become routine? Are you an occasional Sunday school substitute who needs something that is quick and easy but that will still challenge people to think? Is your group given to discussion? Are you looking for something unusual that will spark people's curiosity without losing a solid, biblical footing? If any of these apply to you, then 'Can Anything Good Come from Seinfeld' can help! Written by Melle Spencer, a veteran Sunday school teacher, this book is composed of multiple self-contained lessons that can be effectively delivered with a minimum of preparation. Beginning with the day-to-day humor of the Seinfeld series, each lesson incorporates an episode of the show and moves naturally to in-depth discussion supported by key biblical passages. Intended to stir up discussion and cause class members to take stock of their beliefs, this fun-filled, biblically-founded study is sure to reignite interest in the Scripture within any group.
